

Sunday, January 29th

- Celebrate our Parish
  - Attend Mass as a family
  - Visit Open House and meet next year's teacher(s) 11:15am-1:30pm

Monday, January 30th

- Celebrate our Community
  - Mayor Aspacher shares Catholic Schools Week Proclamation at 2:30pm.
  - Classes thank an individual or organization for making a positive impact in our community.

Tuesday, January 31st

- Celebrate our Faculty and Staff
  - Surprises for our awesome faculty and staff
  - Each homeroom teacher will choose a dress down theme for their class
  - Consider nominating a teacher for the Golden Apple Award

Wednesday, February 1st

- Celebrate the Nation
  - Students may wear red, white and blue today (jeans or athletic pants are ok).
  - 8th grade student will sing the National Anthem on morning announcements.
  - Classes thank someone who makes our nation a better place.

Thursday, February 2nd

- Celebrate Vocations
  - We are called to do our best...junior high spelling bee at 9:30am
  - 2:00 pm School Mass (Celebrate the Presentation of the Lord and Pray for vocations)

Friday, February 3rd

- Celebrate our Students
  - St. Al's Spirit Day (Dress in jeans/athletic pants with St. Al's spirit wear or blue and gold)
  - Academic Pep Rally
  - Treat for our students at lunch

ALL WEEK LONG

- Celebrate Family
  - Teachers will make every effort to assign no new homework during Catholic Schools Week. There may be ongoing assignments the students need to continue working on.
  - Spend the extra time as a family, playing board games, doing crafts or getting some exercise together :)