From the Principal:

Tonight's Mass of the Lord's Supper is the beginning of the Easter Triduum, the holiest days of the church year as we remember the Last Supper, reflect on Jesus' passion and death and then celebrate His resurrection. Please consider introducing your child to the beauty of these special liturgies. I pray that you will have a blessed Easter and a beautiful spring break! I'll see everyone back on the 17th!

God's Blessings,

Andrea Puhl

Please use this link to let us know what your child(ren) will be doing for Grandparents Day on April 20th. We need to know if they will be going out for lunch or staying here to eat and would also like to have the name(s) of the adults that have permission to be with them. Please note that there are different arrival times for those going out to lunch (11:00) as compared to those staying here for lunch (11:30). This will allow for a better flow of traffic and for us to more efficiently match up the students and their special guests. After lunch all are invited back to school for a scavenger hunt and Mass at 2:00pm.

From the Office:

- Thank you to the 2nd, 6th, and 7th grade families who provided a delicious luncheon to faculty and staff on Friday. We enjoyed every bite and got some great meatless ideas for Lent too!
- Today is the last day to order yearbooks! Use the link and the St. Al's school code 229949 to order online.
- May lunch orders must be placed by April 15th at midnight.
- First grade Saints program can be viewed on April 20th at 9:00am at this link: <https://venue.streamspot.com/event/MzcxMjc3NQ>

Our 1BookBG books are here! Jerry Pallotta signed every book. Your child also has a 1BookBG packet filled with important information. Some highlights include:

- Mission stop guidelines
- Calendar with social media challenges and Who Would Win? spirit days—wear a certain color shirt to show the prediction
- Response sheet for students to fill out after reading the book
- Book order form to purchase other books by Jerry Pallotta. We hope to have these signed by the author. The order forms need to be turned in by April 17, which is the day we return from spring break. Be sure the check is made out to CB Books. Return the order form and check in an envelope marked “author book order”.

We are excited to kick off this community read. Enjoy learning along the way.
