From the Principal:

We celebrated the birthday of our patron, St. Aloysius, today with a special Mass led by our 7th graders and birthday cupcakes for the whole school. In the Catholic Church, we usually celebrate feast days which are generally the date a Saint died and entered their eternal life in heaven. However, St. Al's feast day is June 21st and so we are never in school and able to celebrate it as a school family. Instead, we have the tradition of honoring him at a school Mass close to his March 9th birthday. Yes, it falls during Lent, but as Fr. Tom always says, "The feast is greater than the fast" and we can't miss the chance to learn about and celebrate our patron!
